UP lioness gives birth to 4 cubs at Etawah Safari Park

Faiz Siddiqui@timesgroup.com

Kanpur: In a much-needed good news for wildlife lovers, lioness Neerja gave birth to four cubs at the Etawah Safari Park in Uttar Pradesh on Friday night. At least three of the four cubs are healthy. With this, the number of lions at Etawah Safari Park has increased to 16.

Safari Director Anil Patel said mating of the lioness with the male lion Kanha, which came from Gujarat, took place between Feb 12 and Feb 15, 2024.

This is the first time that Neerja, also born at Etawah Safari Park on Dec 12, 2020, has delivered cubs. Safari sources said Neerja is taking full care of all her cubs. They are continuously trying to drink their mother's milk, which is a positive sign. Usually, first-time mothers are unable to take care of the cubs due to lack of experience, Safari sources said.

The safari staff is monitoring the health and behaviour of the lioness and its newborns round the clock with the help of CCTV cameras under the supervision of safari park's advisor Dr CN Bhava, deputy chief veterinary officer Dr RK Singh and veterinarians Dr Robin Singh Yadav and Dr Shaileendra Singh.

The safari park, that had been in the eye of a storm following a spate of deaths of big cats early this year, sprang a pleasant surprise in April when a flock of 12 rare Himalayan griffon vultures was spotted.

The Himalayan vulture (Gyps Himalayensis) or Himalayan griffon vulture is an Old World vulture native to the Himalayas and the adjoining Tibetan Plateau. It is one of the two largest Old World vultures known to mankind and listed as 'near threatened' on the IUCN Red List.
